“NATIONAL GIRLS CHILD DAY” AWARENESS PROGRAM

Event conducted date: 24.01.2023

Venue: BIEW Campus.

Event Name: “National girls child day” awareness program.

Event Highlights:

Established by the Ministry of Women and Child Development in 2008, National Girl Child Day has been celebrated annually with a common theme. The National Girl Child Day 2023 theme was 'Digital Generation, Our Generation'. The National Girl Child Day is celebrated in India every year on January 24. National Girl Child Day is celebrated with a view to promote awareness about the rights of the girl child to bridge the gender divide and to lay emphasis on the importance of girl's education, health and nutrition.

NSS Unit of Bharathiyar institute of engineering for women celebrated NATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY on 24th January 2023.

MAHOTSAV.

The day is an initiative of the ministry of women and child development and focuses on the need to address the challenges that girls face in Indian society due to gender biases. The purpose of the day is also to change the attitude of society towards girls.

In honor of the event, we had carried out the following tasks:

We kindly ask NSS volunteers, students, and teachers to take a lovely selfie with your parents or your daughter. and sent us the pictures.

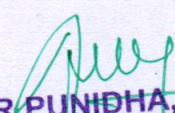

We organized this event to provide women and girls in this patriarchal society with equal opportunity. The event was a success. The girls took part, and both the teaching and non-teaching staff members took photos with their moms and daughters.

“MARTYR’S MEMORIAL DAY”

Event conducted date: 30/01/2023

Venue: BIEW Campus.

Event Name: “MARTYR’S MEMORIAL DAY”

Event Highlights:

In the commemoration of all the martyr's who last their life in the Pulwama Attack a tribute was offered to all the brave soldiers by NSS unit of BIEW.

On Martyrs Memorial Day, January 30, 2023, a heartfelt tribute unfolded with the participation of 50 dedicated volunteers. The solemn event, dedicated to Freedom Fighters, included a poignant two-minute silence, amplifying the reverence for those who sacrificed for liberty. Volunteers, representing diverse backgrounds, united in honouring these heroes through a collective prayer. Their commitment and solidarity added a profound dimension to the commemoration, emphasizing the collective responsibility to uphold the ideals for which the Freedom Fighters bravely stood. This gathering underscored the enduring impact of selflessness and the imperative of passing on the torch of remembrance to future generations.

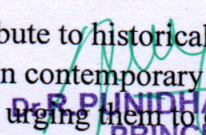

Martyrs' Day, also known as ShaheedDiwas, is observed on January 30th each year in India to pay homage to the brave souls who sacrificed their lives for the freedom and welfare of the nation. One of the most significant events associated with this day is the Punyatithi (death anniversary) of Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation. Martyrs' Day holds immense historical importance, symbolizing the spirit of sacrifice and the relentless struggle for independence.

Significance of Martyrs' Day:

The date, January 30th, marks the assassination of Mahatma Gandhi in 1948. On this solemn day, the nation remembers not only the iconic leader but also countless others who laid down their lives during the struggle against British colonial rule and for the larger cause of justice, equality, and human rights. The observance of Martyrs' Day serves as a reminder of the sacrifices made by these individuals, inspiring generations to uphold the values of freedom, peace, and unity.

On this day, various events and ceremonies are organized across the country to honour the martyrs. The armed forces also salute the sacrifices of the martyrs by laying wreaths at the Amar JawanJyoti, a memorial at India Gate in New Delhi. Top officials of the government gather at the Samadhi at Raj Ghat memorial to pay homage to Mahatma Gandhi.

The observance of Martyrs' Day extends beyond paying tribute to historical figures. It serves as a call to uphold the values of truth, justice, and freedom in contemporary times. The sacrifices made by the martyrs are a beacon for future generations, urging them to contribute to the nation's progress and well-being.

The sacrifices made by the martyrs are a beacon for future generations, urging them to contribute to the nation's progress and well-being.

Here are a few quotes of Mahatma Gandhi on death:

"Death on the battlefield is welcome to a soldier."

"A courageous man prefers death to the surrender of self-respect."

"True ahimsa should wear a smile even on deathbed brought about by an assailant. It is only with that ahimsa that we can defined our opponents and win their love."

On Martyrs Day, the NSS Unit of the Bharathiyar Institute of Engineering for Women held a pledge-taking ceremony in remembrance of those who gave their lives fighting for India's freedom.

We honour this day on January 30 each year. Our NSS volunteers pledged to oppose untouchability and observed a two-minute silence. Our volunteers learned to abstain from violence against "Untouchables" and that it is illegal by taking the pledge.
